

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

David Hirt advises boards and their administrators in all areas of education law, including special education law, student enrollment and tuition issues, student discipline, and labor and employment law. He represents the interests of boards of education at meetings with parents and school personnel, at labor arbitrations, in administrative hearings such as due process hearings and unfair labor practice hearings, and in state and federal courts. David also defends boards of education against complaints filed with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Ohio Civil Rights Commission, and the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights. Additionally, David offers in-service training to district personnel in special education law, student discipline, and tuition and enrollment issues. He has served on the Portage County Bar Association's Certified Grievance Committee, including as its Chairperson, and he is a former member of the City of Kent, Ohio, Board of Zoning Appeals.
